A Truly British Brand

Established in 1875, Charbonnel et Walker is Britain's first and finest chocolatier.

Encourage by Edward VI (then the Prince of Wales), Charbonnel et Walker was created by Mrs Walker and Mme Charbonnel, the latter from an estalished chocolate house in Paris.

The original shop opened at 173 New Bond Street in Mayfair and has remained in Bond Street ever since. It is housed in one of London's most magical arcades, the Royal Arcade on Old Bond Street.

We feel proud and priviledged to hold the Royal Warrant as chocolate manufacturers to Her Majesty The Queen.

A Taste of Luxury Imbued with History

Charbonnel et Walker chocolates are still hand-made to the traditional recipes of Madame Charbonnel.

We are particularly renowned for our dark chocolate, made from the darkest couverture.

In more recent years, our Pink Marc de Champagne Truffles and Milk Sea Salt Caramel Truffles have become the choicest flavours in chocolate gift giving.

Charbonnel et Walker gifts are always presented in exquisite gift boxes. From the very beginning, Mrs Walker created the most beautiful gift boxes whilst Mme Charbonnel filled each one with a truly mouth-watering array of delicious chocolates. This is just as important to us today.

A beautifully presented box of Charbonnel et Walker is certain to delight; an exquisite expression of your care and attention.

Our Iconic Customers

The rich heritage of Charbonnel et Walker weaves together a magnificent patronage of colourful characters from Royalty and Aristocracy to Socialites and Screen Legends.

Our iconic customers have included Princess Diana, Princess Margaret, Wallis Simpson, Oscar Wilde, Sir John Gielgud, Sir Alec Guinness, Lauren Bacall, Noel Coward (who requested a box of our finest selections to be delivered to his home every fortnight) and Prince Francis of Teck (who once bequeathed the Teck Emeralds to his mistress after courting her with Charbonnel et Walker chocolates).
